

FORD, HERBERT. 1996. Pitcairn—Port of Call. Hawser Titles, Box D, Angwin, CA 94508. Softcover, 484 pages plus list of sources. $19.95. Described as "A fascinating maritime history of the world's ships calling at the lonely island home of descendants of the 'Mutiny on the Bounty' mutineers," Pitcairn—Port of Call consists of a listing of every known ship that called at the island, starting in 1790 and ending in 1990. The sections are divided by dates. The intervals vary, although most encompass ten-year increments. The largest sections are those dealing with the early years, 1790-1849 and 1850-1879. Aside from a short six-page introduction, the book is entirely made up of ship landings. Some of the entries are embellished with historical information taken from island or ships' logs. This is a book that will delight the hearts of sailors and lovers of minutiae, and all Bounty enthusiasts.
